

WEAVING FAIR 2023

Frequently asked questions.

What time is the fair on?

Gates open at 10.00am. Closing at 4.00pm. Everyone to be offsite by 5.00pm.

When is the Weaving Fair held?

Sunday 17th March 2023.

What types of Tickets are available?

Single tickets, family and group bookings (a group of 10 plus booked at the same time and entering at the same time)

Under 18 FREE entry, if escorted by a paying adult.

Can I get a Pass-Out?

Yes. Pass-outs are available, you will be required to check in again through the gate and present your barcoded ticket.

Is there an ATM onsite?

No.

Can I bring my Dog to the Weaving Fair?

No. Although your dogs would enjoy weaving, we are unable to cater for all dogs on site. Official service/guide dogs are permitted (service dogs must have official ID/vest).

Do I have to pre-book tickets?

No, you will be able to buy tickets at the gate, the wait in line is generally long. Pre-purchasing tickets guarantees entry if the venue reaches capacity. booking before the day helps organisers better cater for crowds with services, facilities and catering (food & drink supplies). Plus its cheaper to pre-book.

Do you accept Carers Cards?

Yes. Carers cards and other officially recognised assistance cards are accepted, when accompanying the person in care that has a ticket. The person with the carers card receives free entry, just come to the scanning gate accompanying the person(s) for whom you are caring.

Is there Parking onsite?

Yes. Parking is available onsite for a gold coin donation to the not for profit service managing the parking. Parking is not managed by Lost Trades.

Is there transport to the site?

No.

Is there Accessible Parking for those that need it?

Yes. Dedicated accessible parking is located near the entrance gate. Those with an appropriate permit will be given access to these parks by Volunteer staff who will be in attendance and managing the parking.

How accessible is the Venue and Grounds?

The Weaving Fair is an outdoor event, many areas are flat but not paved. There are grassed areas that most exhibitors will be located on, they are not paved and the ground although flat may be a little uneven. The majority of the grounds are very flat and grassed. There are no steps to see artisans.

Do you have mobility scooters for hire.

No. We do not have mobility scooters for hire.

Can I bring my own food?

Yes. You are welcome to bring your own food and water to the fair, we ask that you do not bring cans or glass bottled drinks onsite. There is a strict NO alcohol policy, anyone found with alcohol or consuming alcohol will be asked to leave the event without refund.

Can I bring my own alcohol?

No. There is a strict NO alcohol policy, anyone found with alcohol or consuming alcohol will be asked to leave the event without refund.

Is there Free Water available?

Yes. You can fill your water bottle. We encourage you to bring your own refillable water bottle, as we are working towards eliminating single use plastic.

Can I camp or stay onsite or in the carpark?

No. You cannot camp or stay onsite overnight in your tent, vehicle, RV or van.

Are there things for sale at the Fair to buy?

Yes. Artisans will have things that they make for sale. Some run workshops during the year that you can book. There are also activities to do with artisans at the event.

Is their food for sale at Lost Trades?

Yes. There is a range of food makers serving freshly prepared food & drinks. There is no prepackaged pies/hot dogs/muffins etc. There are vegetarian and gluten free food options available. Drinks/Beverages: We support local and have a strict drinks policy - there are no prepackaged soft drinks or cans and strictly no alcohol at the fair. We welcome you to bring a picnic or your own food but ask that you use the bins and dispose of your rubbish responsibly. There is water and a range of homemade cordials, lemonade, tea and coffee available. Coliban Water fountains are onsite to fill your water bottles or drink bottles.

Will you refund my ticket if the event has to be cancelled?

In the event that we are forced to cancel, we will give you a 80% refund of the ticket purchase price, minus the booking fee; 20% of your ticket purchase price will be retained to assure contractors are paid cancellation costs and a small portion of upfront administration costs are covered.

Who do I contact if I have other questions that are not answered here?

Email Michael Naismith at : mnaismith@edmundrice.org